

ConnectFlow Website Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 24 June 2026

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Amentum Clean Energy Ltd. (“ConnectFlow,” “we,” or “us”), part of the Amentum family of companies, recognises the importance of protecting the privacy of your information. This privacy policy (“Policy”) governs the collection of your data received through our website www.connectflow.com (the “Site”). It explains what personal data we process, how we use it, who we share it with, the choices you have, and the rights you may exercise. We use the terms “personal data” and “personal information” interchangeably throughout this policy.

If you or your company are a ConnectFlow customer and choose to participate in the ConnectFlow peer-to-peer (P2P) forum, the handling of your data within that forum is governed by the separate privacy policy made available inside the forum platform, not by this Policy.

The party responsible for this Site is:

Amentum Clean Energy Ltd.
305 Bridgewater Place
Birchwood Park
Warrington WA3 6XF

Information We Process

Information You Provide Directly

We collect information you provide to us directly, for example, when you contact us using the contact details on the Site or send us an e-mail. This may include your name, email address, telephone number, company or organisation name, and the content of your message. We use this information to respond to and manage your enquiry. Providing this information is voluntary; if you choose not to provide it, we may be unable to respond to you.

Information We Collect Automatically

When you visit the Site, our hosting infrastructure automatically logs technical information transmitted by your browser, including your IP address, the date and time of access, the pages requested, the referring URL, and your browser type and operating system. We process this data to deliver the Site, to ensure its stability and security, and to detect and prevent misuse.

In particular, we have collected (within the last twelve (12) months) and continue to collect- the following categories of Personal Data:

Category of Data	Example of Data	Purpose for Collection and Disclosure
Identifiers / contact data	First and last name, telephone number, email address, company or business contact information, online identifier, IP address	Respond to and manage your website enquiry
Commercial information	The content of your enquiry or message, and any product or service interest you express	Respond to enquiries; provide information you request from us
Internet, online identifiers, or other electronic network activity	IP address, browser type and operating system, pages viewed, referring URL, date/time and duration of visit (server log data)	Deliver the Site; ensure its stability and security; detect and prevent misuse
Approximate location	Coarse location inferred from IP address	Security and correct delivery of the Site

iConnect Members' Portal

Part of the Site (the "iConnect portal") is a restricted area that can only be accessed with a username and password. When you log in, we process your login credentials (your username and your password, which we store only in protected form) together with records of your access, in order to verify your identity, give you access to the protected materials, and keep the area secure against unauthorised use.

We process this data to provide you with access to the portal you have requested and on the basis of our legitimate interest in securing that access and preventing misuse.

Legal Basis for Processing Your Data

We process personal data on one or more of the following bases, as permitted by the laws applicable to you:

- Consent: an individual must give clear consent for us to process their Personal Data and then only for a specific purpose. You may withdraw consent at any time, without affecting processing already carried out.
- Performance of a contract or steps taken at your request: the processing is necessary for a contract that Amentum has with an individual, or because we have asked the individual to take specific steps before entering into a contract e.g. to provide our services.

- Compliance with a legal obligation: the processing is necessary for Amentum to comply with the law.
- Legitimate Interests: the processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by Amentum or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject. This includes responding to your enquiries, operating and securing the Site, preventing misuse, and maintaining our business records.

We do not use your personal data for automated decision-making or profiling that produces legal or similarly significant effects.

Use and Retention of Your Personal Data

In addition to the purposes set forth in the chart above, we may use or disclose the categories of Personal Data we collect for one or more of the following purposes:

- Fulfill or meet the reason you provided the information, including to respond to inquiries on our Sites;
- Provide you with information or services that you request from us;
- To help maintain the safety, security, and integrity of our Sites;
- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations;
- As we believe to be necessary or appropriate: (i) to enforce this Privacy Policy and our Terms of Use; (ii) to protect our operations; (iii) to protect our rights, privacy, safety or property, and/or that of you or others; and (iv) to allow us to pursue available remedies or limit the damages that we may sustain;
- As described to you when collecting your Personal Data or as otherwise set forth in applicable law; and
- To evaluate or conduct a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of our assets, whether as a going concern or as part of bankruptcy, liquidation, or similar proceeding, in which Personal Data held by us is among the assets transferred.

We retain Personal Data only for as long as it is necessary to fulfill the purpose(s) for which it was collected, as outlined above, or as required by applicable law. The applicable retention period may depend on the nature and sensitivity of the personal data, operational requirements (e.g. business continuity, record keeping) or legal, contractual, and regulatory obligations. Where no statutory retention period applies and processing is no longer justified, Personal Data is securely deleted or anonymized.

Sharing Your Information

To the extent consistent with applicable law, we may share your information in the following circumstances:

- with affiliates within the Amentum family of companies;
- with affiliated and third-party service providers, such as companies that provide us with technical support, data hosting, content display, maps, and other services;
- with other parties when required by law or as necessary to provide or protect our services, products, and other offerings. For example, we may need to disclose information to other parties to comply with the law or respond to legal process or a request for cooperation by a government entity or law enforcement; to prevent fraud or verify and enforce compliance with the policies and terms governing our Services; and to protect our rights, property, or safety, or that of any of our respective affiliates, business partners, customers or employees;
- in the event we sell or transfer all or a portion of a business or assets to a third party, such as in connection with a merger or in the event of a bankruptcy reorganization or liquidation; and
- when you or your company or organization consent to or request such sharing.

Amentum does not sell, disclose, or otherwise make available your Personal Data to third parties for their independent direct marketing purposes or cross-context behavioral advertising. However, we share limited information with third-party service providers and other recipients.

International Transfers of Personal Data

Some of our service providers as well as our affiliate companies from the Amentum group may process data outside your country of residence, including in the United Kingdom and the United States. Where this occurs, we ensure appropriate safeguards are in place, such as the EU-US Data Privacy Framework, Standard Contractual Clauses, or, where permitted, a recognised exception. You may contact us for information on the specific mechanism used and the protections applied.

Links to Other Websites and Third Parties

The Sites may contain links or references to third-party owned or operated websites or online services. Amentum is not responsible for Personal Data collection by such third parties or the security or privacy of such information on any such third-party sites or services.

Likewise, Amentum is not responsible for the collection, use and disclosure policies and practices (including the data security practices) of any other application developer, application provider, social media platform provider, operating system provider, wireless service provider or device manufacturer, including with respect to any Personal Data you disclose to such other organizations through or in connection with our social media pages, any mobile sites, applications, widgets, and other mobile interactive features.

Protection of Information

Amentum uses industry standard security measures to protect the information under our control, including firewalls and other security measures. Although the inherent risks of the Internet means that we cannot guarantee the protection of your information against loss, misuse, or alteration, Amentum takes steps to protect your Personal Data. Amentum assumes no liability for the disclosure of data due to errors in transmission or actions of unauthorized third parties. Amentum cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or from our Sites.

Your Rights as a data subject

Depending on the applicable data protection laws in your country of residence, you may have certain rights in relation to your Personal Data. These may include:

- Right of access
- Right to rectification
- Right to erasure
- Right to restriction of processing
- Right to data portability
- Right to withdraw consent
- Right to object
- Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

Exercising Your Rights

To exercise your applicable rights to know or delete described above, please email the Amentum Privacy Office. Only you, or someone legally authorized to act on your behalf, may make a request related to exercising your privacy rights.

Your request must:

- Provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected Personal Data; and
- Describe your request with sufficient detail that allows us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with Personal Data if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the Personal Data relates to you. We will only use Personal Data provided in the request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make it. We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your applicable legal rights

Additional Information for Residents of the United States

We do not sell your personal data and do not share it for cross-context behavioural advertising. We do not knowingly collect sensitive personal information through the Site.

If you are a resident of California or another U.S. state that provides such rights, you may request to know/access, delete, or correct the personal data we hold about you, and you have the right not to be discriminated against for exercising these rights. You may submit a request, or have an authorised agent submit one on your behalf, using the contact details below.

The Site is intended to be used by adults and corporate entities interested in ConnectFlow. It is not intended for children, and we do not knowingly collect or store Personal Data about individuals under the age of 18.

Additional Information for Residents of Japan

The business operator handling personal information through the Site is Amentum Clean Energy Ltd. We use personal information for the purposes described in this Policy, principally to respond to enquiries and to operate and secure the Site. We do not provide personal information to third parties except to the service providers described above acting on our behalf, or as otherwise permitted by law.

In operating the Site, personal data may be handled or stored in foreign countries, specifically the United Kingdom and the United States. Information about the personal-information protection systems of these countries and the security measures taken by the recipients is available from us on request.

You may request the disclosure, correction, addition, deletion, or suspension of use of your personal information, and you may raise a complaint about our handling of it, by contacting us using the details below. We may take reasonable steps to confirm your identity before responding.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

Due to changes in technology, legal requirements, and our Sites, we may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of changes by posting changes here, or by other appropriate means. We suggest that you bookmark this page so that you may check periodically to see if any changes have been made.

Do Not Track Signal

Some web browsers may transmit “do-not-track” signals to the websites with which the user communicates. We do not currently take action in response to those signals. If an industry standard on responding to such signals is established and accepted, we may reassess how to respond to those signals.

Questions and Contact Information

If you have any questions about this statement or our handling of Personal Data please email the Amentum Privacy Office.
